

The Himalayan

NWEDC's support

BIZ BRIEFS

Published: June 30, 2015 11:09 am On: Business

KATHMANDU: The Upper Trishuli-1 Hydro-electric Project (UT-1) located in Rasuwa district with the installed capacity of 216 MW is being implemented by Nepal Water and Energy Development Company Pvt Ltd (NWEDC). Local Development Officer of DDC Rasuwa, Bishnu Prasad Koirala, and Hong Seok Bin, CEO of NWEDC signed MoU amid a function in Dhunche on June 22. The company will provides $400,000 to construct temporary accommodation, food, construction of schools, health posts, and latrines, drinking water, solar lamp, mobile health camp to the internally displaced persons of Haku, Ramche and Dhunche village development committees (VDCs) of Rasuwa district, as per the press statement issued on Monday. Immediately after the quake, NWEDC rescued 67 injured locals by helicopter, and provided immediate relief materials including food, tarpaulin, blankets, utensils worth of $68,000. KOSEP had also handed over $50,000 to the Nepali ambassador in Seoul on May 21. With this, the total contribution now stands at $450,000. For successful implementation of MoU, the firm will manage financial resources from KOSEP (South Korea), Daelim and Kyeryong (South Korea) , International Finance Corporation, and DEG (Germany), the statement adds.